Receipts of Live Stock at the Union Stock Yards during the past 24 hours-114 Cattle, 902 Hogs, 15 Horses Shipments- 283 Cattle, 283 Hogs, 15

The receipts of cattle were fair. A good many good cattle were on the market but buyers were all full handed and took hold slow. The local butchers bought only the choicest of the offerings, which left the bulk to be taken by shippers and specula-tors. Some extra cows sold for Christmas beef for fancy prices. This class of stock will be in good demand until holidays. Reports from eastern markets showed a tendency toward lower prices and buyers took advantage of the decline. The market declined 5@10 cents and was dull at

The receipts of hogs were good today. The market opened steady and buyers took hold readily at yesterday's figures, but on the receipt of advices from Chicago and Kansas City, the market weakened sales fell off. Quite a number of hogs were left unsold at the close. Dold and the Fort Worth Packing company were the principal buyers, speculators taking very few. Top hogs sold for $3.40, bulk at $3.30@3.35. The market closed dull and 5 REPRESENTATIVE SALES

Lets His Neighbor's Dog Alone. Some time ago a camp meeting was begun at Hollow Rock Springs, ewned by an old fellow named Mayhew. Just after the religious exercises were started one of the officers of the association went to old Mayhew and said:

"Look here, old man, there is something the matter with that spring water."

"Yes, I know it. Tastes bad and smells "Wall, I won't dispute your word. Man's got a result to his opinion in this here neighborhood."

"But can't something be done?" "I den't know but that mout." What would you suggest?"

"Wall, I recken the best thing to do as a starter would be to take the dog out." "Take the dog out)" the officer gasped. 'What do you mean?"
"Mean you had better pull out the dead iog, an' give the water a chance to prove "Is it possible that you knew there was

"Of course I knowed it when I seed him in thar.' "Why didn't you take him out?" "Well, it's old Andy Patterson's dog, an' me an' Andy ain't on good terms, you know. Andy is mighty funny about his property. I found the dog, the same one, in my springhouse once, an' I pulled him out, an' pulled him putty hard, too, an'

Andy got mad an' chunked me round a good deal, an' since that I allus let his property alone."-Pittsburg Dispatch. Puritanic Horror of Kissing. Many ridiculous anecdotes are told to illustrate Puritanie horror of this pleasant and natural saiute—one of Rev. Brown, an English divine, who was known as the author of a Biblical Concordance. He court ed his wife seven years before he asked if he might kiss her. "Just as you please," she answered demurely. "Let us first ask

"Why, it's good!" he exclaimed. "Let us return thanks." They were married in a blessing," he said, after which he kissed

That brings to my mind the saying of a roung woman concerning a suitor whom she had rejected. In summing up his qualities she said: "He was good looking, he was educated, he was devoted, he sent me flowers-I always thought I'd love a man who sent me flowers-but," she con-cluded in a tone of distain, "he hadn't sense enough to kiss me when he had a chance!"—Kate Kauffman in Jenness-Miller Magazine.

St. Louis to Colorado via Wichita. Commencing Sunday, July 13,1830, the Missouri Pacific milway will run through sleeping cars from St. Louis via Pleasant Hill, Rich Hill, Fort Scott and Wichita to Genessee and from thence to Pueblo, Colo rado Springs and Denver. This change was made on account of a great many people from the east going to Colorado being desirous of going via Wichita. The train will stop here two hours, giving all a chance to view the "Peerless Princess" and still land passengers in Colorado same time as if they had gone via Kansas City. It also gives the citizens of Wichita sleep-ing car service from here to Colorado. Re-turning, it gives us through sleeping car service Wichita to St. Louis, and gives the Colorado people a chance to go east via Wichita. This change will undoubtedly be appreciated by the traveling public, and especially by the citizens of Wichita. If you are going east or west go via the pop-ular new through route. Through chair and sleeping car service. New route just completed between Fort Scott and Rich Hill goes through the finest mineral and agricultural country in the west. Don't forget the new short line to St. Louis or Colorado.

THISTLEDOWNS.

They transle gently o'er us,
And waver with the breeze
To flutter fair before 20—
But if we think to seize

These bits of lightness, floating Elusive, fairy wise, Beneath our fingers darting They quiver toward the skies.

They sail along screnely, And then, like tricksy elses, Dart swift aside, and meanly Evade our longing selves. And if perchance we win them The touch must subtle be Which holds the grace within them. Yet less them poles as free.

Such are those rare creations With fleeting beauty fraught, Our siry inspirations. The thistledowns of thought.

Fads of the Footlights. The fads of actresses and actors form a curious study. Nearly every person on the stage any length of time betrays a leaning to some particular thing outside of her or his profession, a conspicuous weakness. The lovely Sadie Martinot, whose imported dresses excite the woman world, has a weakness for her pretty self. She uses paper with an etching of herself in one corner. Georgie Cayvan has a collection of thirty scrapbooks. Emma Carson and Marie Jansen like cats. Rose Coghlan spends a great deal of time on a couple of big dogs given her by Lester Wallack. Herbert Kelcey, who divides time with Bob Hilliard as a stage beauty, never wears an overcoat.

Lillie Alliston has rare bric-a-brac picked up in the Orient. Minnie Palmer goes in for etchings. Stuart Robson is said to love old books. Francis Wilson is crazy on the subject of Napoleon. He has a big bronze bust of the emperor, given him by some Columbia college students whom he coached in amateur theatricals. Wilton Lackage has a unique collection of fencing foils. Langtry has many fine photographs with autographs. Mollie Thompson is proud of her four banjos. Harry Edwardes goes in for bugs. He is an authority on entomology. Milnes Levick is in love with pipes.-Cor. Pittsburg Dispatch.
